

Satellite Radio provides a service that is not available elsewhere. I pay for service and the National Association of Broadcasters should not be able to dictate the content.

What ever happened to Free Enterprise? Satellite Radio is the way of the future, like it or not. If commercial stations were worth wistening to, then they should have nothing to fear.

Please reject NAB's petition 04-160.